THE ARTS PATRON

Gene Thompson was a joyous man with a friendly smile. He passed away suddenly on November 3, 2014. He worked as an actuary in Philadelphia at General Accident and INS Consultants, Inc., his last post. He loved beautiful and unique objects and was an enthusiastic collector of crafts and fine art. Thompson generously supported numerous talented artists, including painters, photographers, sculptors and furniture makers. A member of All Saints' Torresdale Episcopal Church, he is survived by his brother-in-law Don Minniak; two nieces; and two great nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the American Heart Association in Philadelphia.
